NOTE

As it is necessary to begin printing WHO'S WHO in August, in many cases occurrences of a later date are not recorded; deaths reported up to the middle of October have been included, however, in the Obituary.

In view of misunderstandings that sometimes arise it should be pointed out that the details given of the children of a marriage should be the number of sons and daughters now living; also, under Clubs, it is the practice to print the names of London clubs unaccompanied by the word London, although in the case of clubs elsewhere the names of the towns in which they are situated should be given.

A proof of each entry is posted to its subject every year for personal revision, though it is not possible to send such proofs unless an address is given. There is an unusually large number of changes of address in the present edition and, similarly on account of present circumstances, a number of proofs may not have reached their subjects, with the consequence that in some such instances changes of address and occupation have not been notified.

It cannot be too emphatically stated that inclusion in WHO'S WHO has never at any time been a matter for payment or of obligation to purchase the volume.
